- New Security Features -

Sophisticated metallic feature

Green metallic patch

Watermark and denomination electrolyte image

FCO® labyrinth anticopy background

See-through feature

Large numeral with extra tactility

Latent image

Colour shifting windowed thread with text

THE CENTRAL BANK OF THE BAHAMAS

CRISP

Watch for other modern designs coming soon from The Central Bank of The Bahamas

CRISP $1
The Central Bank of The Bahamas

Coming soon from The Bahamas
Watch for other modern designs

CRISP

Micro-Lettering
Inverted
Reinforces the handling by the visually impaired
Large unmarked with extra tactility
Scanner beam of a colour copier
The different angles of the Lines interfere with a geometric shapes composed of lines. The variation of OCO logarithm background
Producing different colour tones
Variable designs applied with laser engraving process
Complete designs showing a hand colour can be seen
See-through feature

Metallic feature

Letter Image

BAHAMAS.
The word is only visible when viewed against the light and reads changing from yellow to green when light is observed and it colour shifting metallic sheen can be observed. The security thread comes to the surface as regular numbers.

Asymmetric serial numbers

Denomination "1" can be seen
O Printing and a highlighted area showing the different observation angle.
Embossed with a text line visible at metallic and fluorescent ink bleed
Sophisticated metallic feature
Overprinted with intricate
Green metallic patch

Front